HAPPY VALENTINES DAY, TUCSON BEAD TRIP, BLING FLING

Hi there boys and girls,
Welcome to another addition of your Newsletter. I hope you all had a great January and are ready for the year ahead. It is quite the busy time for us.

There is the Tucson Bead Trip, with over 1,000 vendors and booths. Yikes that is a lot to take in. Last year I only made it to about 9 booths in the time allotted. This year I will strive to do better. I have set certain goals for myself, such as not buying any cord, very few if any beads, yadda, yadda, yadda. If I can get by for less money than last year it will be a small victory for me.

The Bling Fling is just around the corner, followed by the Chili Party and the Craft Fair.

By the way, if you missed the January luncheon, you missed a doozy. The food and the company were both fabulous. Poor George, I think he lost more gifts than anyone, except for Arlene. They must have good taste, because everything they picked was stolen within 1 or two moves. Anyway when all was said and done, it was a lovely afternoon. Thank you to the committee for a real bang up job.

A reminder from George and Harriet, don't forget the display case in the room. It is a great way to show off your creations and maybe pick up a few more sales. They are always looking for submissions, and yes they do sell, especially during the Bling Flings.
