February 2017

The Month of Love

page1 of 2

Hello there everyone. Thank you all for the nice thoughts and calls. As I am writing this and trying not to hack my brains out, not much to lose if I do, I am glad January is almost over. It will be by the time you read this.

There are many things on the horizon for the month of February. There is the Bling Fling, the trip to Tucson, lots of new classes, Valentine's Day, and so much more. I wanted to make this newsletter red, but when I did, my eyes went crazy, so, I softened the tone a little bit. The red was very hard to take and the writing would have been very hard to see.

Okay now on to the good stuff, hopefully in the order it should happen. First up is the trip to Tucson, on the very first day of February. We are all eagerly awaiting the trip and the chance, no, the certainty of spending lots of money on beautiful new items that we desperately need, okay want, okay cannot live without. I have very fond memories of my trips to Tucson and the beads to back it up. I can and should use some of those beads for the Bling Fling which is coming up on the 11th. I know I should, and I also know I won't, but I could if I wanted. So there!!! Don't forget we need help in addition to all of the hard workers we have selling their crafts. It is for the benefit of the club and it is a lot of fun. We have eliminated the competition and the crowding that occurs at the Craft Fairs. That is the one biggest factor that people love the Flings, they do not have to fight to get near the tables. Okay they also love the great variety of product that is available to them, and they get to meet the artists in person! A triple treat.

We have lots of new classes coming up. Be sure to check the counters and the books to see samples and get all the information you need. Don't forget to bring your checkbook, because you need a $5.00 refundable (if you show up for class) check, that you can reuse for another class. When you register for a class write down the instructors name and number, so you can contact them if you are unable to take the class. Besides being the right thing to do, it gets you your check back and lets the teacher offer your space to someone on the waiting list.
