NATIONAL NOVEL WRITING MONTH

Well hello everybody. Glad to be back for the month of November. Yikes, I can't believe it is November already. The year is almost over. Yea!!! I am looking forward to a much brighter and cheerier 2021. I am assuming it will be better than 2020; after all, it can't be much worse. In addition to many more serious problems, we had to cancel the Spring and Fall Craft Fairs and the Fall Bling Fling.

Just in case you were not at 9-21-20 Third Quarter General Meeting, here are just a few of the highlights. The biggest one is, DUES ARE WAIVED FOR 2021! Yes, you read that right. If you were a member in 2020, you are automatically a member in 2021. You can register just like always, receive your new bead and bring your information up- to- date. Of course, all of this is predicated on the fact that you paid your Rec. Center dues. That will still have to be checked. Also, the member in good standing requirement needs to be fulfilled or waived.

Helping us maneuver around the constraints imposed by the pandemic and social distancing, the Rec Center has assisted the Beaders with two elections this year.

The first election was conducted by emailing our yes-no votes to the Rec Center during a prescribed time slot Oct 5-8. In this election, the Beaders approved having co-presidents in 2021. We also approved allowing people to run for co-president even if they had already served two terms as president.

The Rec Center helped us choose the Beaders board for 2021 by assisting us with on-line voting Oct 26- Oct 29. It was very easy to complete the voting process. We elected the following people to serve on our Board: Karen Osmond and Shelia Mackasek as co-presidents; Kathy Donner as vice-president; Gloria Miller as treasurer, Mitzie Bergquist as Secretary, and Chris Skowronski as Member at Large. Good luck to the upcoming officers!

The next General meeting will be held on Monday November 16. The meeting starts at noon and will officially announce the results of the election of officers. It will be a Zoom meeting in addition to an in-person meeting in Sagebrush. The board hopes to have a movie screen in Sagebrush so that those attending in person can see the faces of the people speaking on Zoom. The Sagebrush room has speakers in the ceiling. Rumor has it that we will discuss the Good Standing Rule.

Karen Osmond has advertised a bracelet class she will teach via Zoom. You can attend by watching the Zoom movie screen in Sagebrush, or by Zoom from home. Karen posted photos and a supply list on Facebook. Candy Surdez's 11-1-20 also shows e Karen's photos and supply list. The tentative date is 12:30 on November 18.

Since it is coming up on the New Year, I would like to tell all of you how much I have enjoyed writing this newsletter for all these many years. The time has come however to let someone else have fun. The job is easy. I know there are lots of creative types out there and now s your chance. Just write to 2020 president Lynn Krabbe, or upcoming 2021 co-presidents Shelia Mackasek and Karen Osmond; and let them know you are interested. My last newsletter will be the December 1, 2020 issue. As I said, I have enjoyed my time and don't want to overstay my welcome. So, step right up and take the challenge! Write to LKrabbe@cox.net; smackasek@gmail.com; KOsmond7@cox.net

The next board meeting will be a Zoom meeting at 6:30 on Monday November 9. Email Lynn if you want her to send you a Zoom invitation.

Now on to your CALENDARS!
